

UNIT 1

Q. How long has this person been playing tennis?

For over 20 years.

Q. What do her tennis friends say about her?

She's a natural-born tennis player.

Q. What caused the problem for her?

She told a lie.

UNIT 2

Q. What is this person's goal?

To travel to more countries than her friend.

Q. Where did her friend recently travel to?

To Europe.

Q. How many countries are there in the Caribbean?

There are eight.

UNIT 3

Q. When is this person planning on getting new furniture?

Someday.

Q. What does Sammy usually do all day?

He sits on the sofa.

Q. What happened to the steaks?

Sammy ate them.

UNIT 4

Q. How does the woman and Peter know each other?

They work for the same company.

Q. What bothered the woman about Peter?

He asked too many questions.

Q. What will the woman probably say if Peter asks her on another date?

She doesn't know.

UNIT 5

Q. What did her friend invite her to do?

To go shopping with her.

Q. What does she usually do on Sunday?

She cleans and does laundry.

Q. What was she doing when she fell asleep in the afternoon?

She was reading a book.

UNIT 6

Q. How long has this person been working at the library?

For six months.

Q. If people don't follow the rules, what will happen?

They won't be able to use the library.

Q. Why did this person get fired?

For talking too much and too loud.

UNIT 7

Q. What time is the museum open until on Saturday's?

Until 9:00 PM.

Q. Is it expensive to go to the museum?

No, it's only five dollars.

Q. Are these two friends going to go to the museum together?

No, probably not.

UNIT 8

Q. What will happen if this person's friend doesn't pay off her credit card?

It will get canceled.

Q. How much money does she get from her father each month?

Just 10,000 dollars a month.

Q. What does this person have at lunch?

Champagne.

UNIT 9

Q. What did Nancy do a few weeks ago?

She got married.

Q. Why didn't Sam have dinner with this person and her friend?

He had to work.

Q. Why did the food taste so good?

Because they were really hungry.

UNIT 10

Q. Why is this person worried?

She lost her speech notes.

Q. Where did this person have lunch yesterday?

In the cafeteria.

Q. Where did she find her speech notes?

In her bag.

UNIT 11

Q. What should employees do if there's a problem?

Tell this person about it right away.

Q. How important is this project for the future of the company?

It's very important.

Q. What mistake did this person make?

She thought the deadline was on the 19th.

UNIT 12

Q. Why is this person asking for help?

She wants to move around her furniture.

Q. Why did this person leave her house?

To go buy lunch.

Q. What is this person going to be doing in the evening?

Having a party.

UNIT 13

Q. Where do this person and her friends usually meet?

At restaurants.

Q. Who has a cousin who lives in Spain?

A friend of this person.

Q. Besides traveling, what does this person enjoy doing?

Talking about traveling.

UNIT 14

Q. What was the weather like yesterday?

It was rainy.

Q. What happened when she was talking to the man?

Her friend called her.

Q. Where did they have dinner at?

At her friend's house.

UNIT 15

Q. How much did the bookshelf this person bought cost?

Not very much.

Q. What did she do with the extra screws?

She threw them away.

Q. Why didn't she succeed in putting the bookshelf together?

She didn't read the instructions.

UNIT 16

Q. Who does this person live with?

She lives by herself.

Q. What did she do with all her clothes?

She hid them.

Q. Why doesn't she want her parents to go into her bedroom?

She put everything in her bedroom.

UNIT 17

Q. How far does this person live from the city?

A long ways.

Q. What kind of house does she live in?

A small house with a lot of land.

Q. What did she do with her extra fruit and vegetables?

She sold them.

UNIT 18

Q. What does this person want to do before the reunion in May?

She wants to lose weight.

Q. What gym is she planning on going to?

A gym near her house.

Q. Why does she think the gym will help her lose weight?

It's expensive, so she won't have enough money for food.

UNIT 19

Q. What happened when this person was starting to make dinner?

The lights went out.

Q. Who knocked on her door after the lights went out?

Her neighbor.

Q. What does she hope doesn't happen again?

She hopes the lights don't go out again.

UNIT 20

Q. Why does this person need to wake up so early?

It takes her a long time to get to work.

Q. What does she usually do on the train?

She uses her smartphone.

Q. What is she thinking about doing?

Moving closer to her company.

UNIT 21

Q. What does she enjoy doing more than anything else?

Walking around looking for sweets.

Q. Who made the parfait for this person?

She made it herself.

Q. How many parfaits did she have at the coffee shop?

She had just one.

UNIT 22

Q. Why didn't she have to spend all day working on a big presentation?

One of her coworkers did it for her.

Q. What did she do after having lunch?

She found a new customer.

Q. Why is this person worried?

Everything is going too smoothly.

UNIT 23

Q. Why was this person being interviewed?

She helped to plan a festival.

Q. Where was she during the interview?

She was at home.

Q. What was she doing during the interview?

She was sleeping.

UNIT 24

Q. What was this person planning on doing tonight?

She was planning to go to a concert.

Q. Why can't she go by herself?

Sally has the tickets.

Q. Why can't she go to the concert tonight?

The concert is tomorrow, not tonight.

UNIT 25

Q. What does this person have difficulty doing?

Waking up early in the morning.

Q. Why didn't she like the alarm clock?

It put her in a bad mood.

Q. What wakes her up now in the morning?

Her neighbor's birds.

UNIT 26

Q. What kind of phone did this person used to have?

A simple sandwich phone.

Q. In what way did her phone help her get to work?

It told her about a faster route.

Q. Is she glad that she got a smartphone?

Yes, she is.

UNIT 27

Q. Who woke this person up this morning?

Her dog.

Q. What kind of dog is Andy?

He's a friendly dog.

Q. Who did they have dessert with?

One of Andy's friends and his owner

UNIT 28

Q. How did this person spend her week?

Getting ready for a party.

Q. Who was invited to the party?

All of Sally's friends.

Q. Why didn't Sally come to the party?

She was celebrating her birthday with her family.